

We want everyone who comes in to The Townhouse to feel amazing. Special. Ten out of ten. Top of the world. Whether you order a simple salad for lunch, a hearty three-course dinner or a decadent lobster supper.

And when enjoying that food, we'd like you to feel at home. Chair not comfortable? Tell us. Wine too cold or too warm? Tell us. Don't like the wine but worried about saying so after we've opened it and are standing there waiting? Don't be. We want to know what you like and what you don't like. There and then. And if needs be, we can change it. We strive to be a 'Yes' restaurant. In the words of the great English band, The Levellers, 'Nothing is impossible'.

Frankly, life's too short to sit through a bad meal and nothing makes us sadder than reading a grumpy review on Trip Advisor when the customers said nothing to us at the time.

So, seize the (beautiful) day and come in and see us. If it's anything less than lovely, tell us so we can fix it there and then. And (strangely) that will make us happy.

'What a beautiful day (hey hey)'.
