

Cinema opening 2016

There are several hidden jewels to the Whiteladies 'crown'...including a tiny cocktail bar beyond an unassuming door, a Geocache or two (for those of you in the know) and our roast beef on hot dripping toast (although we've learnt not to keep this a secret because, as good as it is, our mums taught us to share nicely).

And as some of you may already know, one of this road's oldest hidden treasures - The Whiteladies Picture House - has been given a shiny new makeover by Everyman to create a gorgeous new 3 screen cinema just outside our door.

Officially opening today, we've been a tad excited and there's been much front-of-house chat about 'X-Men: Apocalypse', how old Tom Hanks is now and when the long awaited 'Me Before You' will be showing.

And you should be excited too, because the opening ties in with our brand new lunch menu which could lead you nicely up to a late afternoon screening.

Plus, with some excellent set menus (Early Bird 3 courses for Â£12.50 Mon-Fri 5pm-7pm and Â£10 / Â£13.50 for 2 / 3 courses at other times) there is ample opportunity to enjoy a leisurely feast afterwards to chat all about the film. So really that's two nights out in one.

To book a table, just email reservations@thetownhousebristol.co.uk or call 0117 973 9302.

We can't wait to see you.
